

Remember!

Keep your circles with you throughout the week to help you discover your Circles of Community.

Write the names of people you see regularly or for the first time in the circle that seems like the best fit.

These are people all around you who can give you support and receive support you offer.

Bring the circles back to the group the next time you meet.